

Grip Left Me With a Cough

If during the winter you had the grip and are still suffering from the after effects, now is the time to get rid of it. Peruna is your remedy.

A Very Bad Cough

Mrs. R. J. Kountz, 1915 Second St., Nashville, Tenn., writes: "I have had a very bad cough nearly all my life. I have taken almost every kind of cough medicine, but none did me much good. I would have spells of coughing that I thought I would cough myself to death. I took Peruna, and last winter and this winter I have had no cough and I know that Peruna cured me."

A Severe Case of Grip

Mr. W. R. Brown, R. F. D. 4, Box 12, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I have had a very bad cough nearly all my life. I have taken almost every kind of cough medicine, but none did me much good. I would have spells of coughing that I thought I would cough myself to death. I took Peruna, and last winter and this winter I have had no cough and I know that Peruna cured me."

For Mrs. Hardy.

Mrs. T. K. Kearney entertained with a pretty dinner party Monday, for Mrs. R. Hardy of New Mexico. The guest list included the former friends of the honoree: Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. Sally Smith and Mrs. E. F. Graham.

Complimenting Madame Lund.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Guillot entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening, honoring Madame Lund of Oklahoma City.

A delightful musical evening was spent, after which a dainty repast was served.

"The Calling of Dan Matthews."

"The Calling of Dan Matthews" is announced to appear at the Robison opera house Tuesday, Jan. 5. Harold Bell Wright and Elsbeth W. Reynolds have scored another success in their dramatization of this book, which really made Mr. Wright famous, and which set the whole country thinking.

With Mrs. Raser.

A very delightful "at home" was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. B. L. Raser, honoring Mrs. M. Raser of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Rees of Indiana, who are visiting in the city. Excellent refreshments were served by the hostess to Mesdames Peel, Lebus, Edwards, Nisbett, Foster, Farthing, Harrell, Murphy, Woodard, Slaughter, Jordan and DeWitt.

Luncheon for Miss Tyler.

Miss Roma Moore entertained Thursday at one o'clock with an exquisite luncheon honoring Miss Louie Tyler of Waco, Tex.

Place cards were dainty New Year booklets, hand decorated. Seated with the hostess were Miss Genevieve Nivoche, Miss Thelma Ramsey, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Louie Tyler, Miss Ethel Hard and Miss Ellen Dickson.

The members of St. Philip's Guild wish to thank those who assisted them so generously New Year's Eve in making the evening the pleasant one which it was, and especially are they grateful to Mr. Felker, who donated the Chase & Sanborn coffee; to all the members of the Elks' club for their many courtesies; to Messrs. Wortham and Thompson, and the managers of the Venedora.

Forty-Two Party.

Mrs. M. Westheimer and Mrs. Kashi entertained Friday afternoon with a Forty-two party beautifully planned and numbered by the guests as one of the most charming hospitalities of the week.

Pat plants were given as favors to Mrs. Jim Morkau and Mrs. J. A. Bass.

After the games a delicious luncheon was served. Mesdames A. C. Strachley, J. A. Bass, S. A. Apple, J. B. Sprague, M. D. Campbell, Jim Morgan, Jack Noel, Wall, W. L. Cruce, M. L. Alexander, I. H. Love, J. Love of Pauls Valley, T. A. Thurmond, H. C. Potter, W. A. Whitbush, Coleman of Henrietta, Tex., N. H. McCoy, J. A. Rivers, F. P. von Keller, Miss Ezell and Miss Patton of Sulphur.

The home was beautifully decorated with quantities of Christmas suggestions. A large red bell was suspended from the electroliner in the hall; under this the guests registered in a dainty Christmas booklet.

Mrs. E. L. Evans welcomed the guests; Mrs. Ray Poland directed to the dressing room. Mrs. Mark Kirkpatrick introduced the receiving line, in which stood Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Will Potter, Mrs. Canier of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Roy Potter of Gainesville, Mrs. C. L. Anderson, Mrs. C. L. Byrne, Mrs. Louis Boyd, Mrs. T. A. Thurmond, Mrs. L. H. Love, Mrs. J. Love of Pauls Valley, Mrs. J. Stonum, and Mrs. Perry Maxwell.

In the living room where the receiving line stood, the mantel was banked with poinsettias and red chrysanthemums, with trailing of smilax and quantities of holly and mistletoe.

Mrs. Waltrip and Mrs. Walter Thompson invited the guests into the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served; Mrs. W. T. Roberts and Miss Daisy Gray poured coffee. The table was laid with white cluny lace. The center was formed by a large basket filled gracefully with poinsettia and holly. Chrysanthemums and poinsettias were massed artistically on the mantel and the buffet and were festooned in the archedways. Mrs. Valette Mullen directed from the dining room to the guest book, which was in charge of Mrs. George Henley and Mrs. J. A. Bass. Little Miss Clara B. Waltrip received the cards in a daintily decorated Japanese basket.

About one hundred and fifty guests called during the hours, and exchanged greetings for the New Year.

Home-Coming and Dining.

New Year's Eve was the date chosen by Mrs. Morgan for the home-coming of her friends of twenty years ago, who made her home their home, and who, in the early days of Ardmore belonged to the family of Morgan. With this family of years ago, were gathered those who now from day to day call the home of Mrs. T. Y. Morgan their home.

Small tables were arranged in the living rooms and halls, and a bounteous turkey dinner was served. Mr. W. D. Potter made an after dinner talk, in which he vividly called to mind the pleasures and vicissitudes of the early family of Morgan, when the streets of Ardmore were like the streets of Healdton and the sidewalks were as wide as the road. He spoke of the friendships and ties formed in those days, and of the good cheer, hospitality and kindly feelings that were the mottoes of the clever hostess who ruled the house of Morgan.

Mr. J. B. Champion spoke for the members of the 1914 and 1915 family. He boasted of the broad paved streets, the electric lights, the natural resources that had been developed during the years, and of how the family still clung and cherished the legacies of good cheer and hospitality which had grown and increased with years.

After dinner, the guests enjoyed games, music and merry conversation, waiting to welcome the New Year.

Mrs. Morgan's guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Love,

Summit City Club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Howland entertained the Summit City Five Hundred club Thursday evening with a New England dinner, beautiful in every detail.

The home was decorated with gayest of Christmas colorings, and the last meeting of the Summit City club for 1914 is one that will be remembered with the greatest of pleasure.

Mr. Fish won the gentleman's favor at cards. The same honor for the ladies were taken away by Mrs. Homer Adams.

Those who with the club members enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Howland were: Mesdames Dayver, of Iowa, Mrs. Rutzow, and Mrs. Collier of Illinois. The younger guests, friends of Irvin Howland, were: Kenneth Fox, Chester Franklin, Hobart Dolman and Dorothy Dinga.

Honoring Miss Clements.

Friday evening Mr. Robert Crittenden entertained with a dance for Miss Lois Clements of Oklahoma City. The home was decorated with evergreens and poinsettia.

Punch was served during the evening and a buffet luncheon was enjoyed at eleven o'clock.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Lois Clements, Marie West, Genevieve Nivoche, Helen Walcott, Violet Shuman, Elizabeth Myers, Alice Brown, Frances Gorman, Claire Dyer, Esther McNeese, Grace Ledbetter of Oklahoma City, Charlotte (Wall), Chauncy of Ada, Dot McGehee, Lester of McAlester, Ethel Hard, Lillian Hoffmann, Messrs Joe F. Williams, Earl Felker, Joe M. London, Royce Krueger, Ben Newman, Ben Stevens, Frank Stevens, Millard Vernon, Ford Whitehurst, Cassius Byrne, Bert Simpson, Howard McNeese, Stanley Brown, W. S. Crockett and Robert Crittenden.

Watch Party.

The young ladies of the D. Y. C. and their young men friends were delightfully entertained last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brooks on Fifth avenue.

The home was beautifully decorated with bells and mistletoe in honor of the season, and also with the club colors of red and green, which were artistically arranged in every room.

Dainty refreshments were served at 10:30.

After an enjoyable evening with Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Salisbury, chaperoned the party to the K. of P. Hall, where they watched the old year out and the new year in. It is declared by all that this was the happiest New Year ever spent.

Those who enjoyed the evening planned by Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Salisbury were: Misses Hazen Chandler, Eula Mae Doak, Virginia and Mary Lamb, Bertie Baker, Margaret Salisbury, Leta Thomas, A. V. Labatt, Bevie and Pernie Cloudus, Geneva, Georgia and Joan Brooks, Messrs. Pleas McGehee, Cecil Baber, Levi Johnson, Raymond McDaniels, Harry Storey, Clarence Bivens, Homer Love, Jamie Chandler, and Louis Bastin.

Complimenting Mrs. Bunn.

Mrs. N. C. Woods entertained delightfully New Year's Day for Mrs. C. O. Bunn of Oklahoma City. After the games, in which favors were given Mrs. Bunn of Memphis, Mrs. C. O. Bunn and Mrs. B. A. Simpson, the guests were invited into the dining room. The dining room was gaily and artistically decorated in green and red. Green streamers were festooned from the electroliners, terminating in large bows at the corners of the table. Mrs. D. H. Morgan poured coffee. A dainty salad course was served. Miss Annie Thompson, Mrs. P. P. Kearney, Mrs. E. P. Graham, Mrs. W. A. Martin and Mrs. L. W. Burrow assisting. Mrs. Simpson, who drew the consolation, had the pleasure of complying with the clever rhyme pinned on the score cards.

A musical hour after the luncheon was made very pleasing by Miss Elizabeth Butler, Mrs. Burrow, Mrs. Royer and Miss Annie Thompson.

The guest list included Mesdames C. L. Anderson, E. E. Guillot, Bertha Whiteman, B. A. Simpson, Ray Poland, J. S. Berkshire, P. P. Kearney, H. L. Crockett, Morris Sass, L. W. Burrow, C. O. Bunn, H. H. Sayre, Edith of Enid, J. W. Potter, Karl Teitzens, Champion, C. L. Byrne, Kennett Hudson, Breast of Memphis, Tenn., Homer Hinkle, E. H. Royer, Pulliam, T. K. Kearney, Misses Butler, Annie Thompson, and Jennie Williams of Norman.

Reception.

Unusually attractive in its appointments, and marked by many beautiful details, the "at home" given by Mrs. T. Y. Morgan, New Year's Eve, from 3 to 5, is one that will be remembered by many seasons by those who had the pleasure of accepting the hospitalities of the charming hostess.

The home was beautifully deco-
